Non-Profit Groups Invited to Free Federal Grant Writing Workshop Sponsored by Congressman Frank Wolf

In an effort to help area non-profit organizations learn about the federal grant process, Representative Frank Wolf will host a conference on applying for federal grants.

The conference is free and open to any non-profit organization in the 10th District. The conference will be similar to the grants workshop Wolf hosted in the spring of 2004 in Leesburg, where more than 350 people attended.

Representatives from the departments of Education, Justice, and Health and Human Services have been invited to speak about grant writing and strategies for successful applications. The popular "Grants.gov" Web site also will be discussed.

The conference will be from 9:30 a.m. –12:30pm on Tuesday, March 7, at the Loudoun County Public School Administration Building, 21000 Education Court, Ashburn, VA. Attendance is limited to the first 400 people to register.

Groups interested in attending can contact any of Wolf's offices or register online at www.house.gov/wolf . Click on "Grants Conference."

To contact Wolf's offices by phone, call Washington (202) 225-5136, Herndon (703) 709-5800, or Winchester (540) 667-0990.

Volunteers Needed for the 18th Annual Potomac River Watershed Cleanup

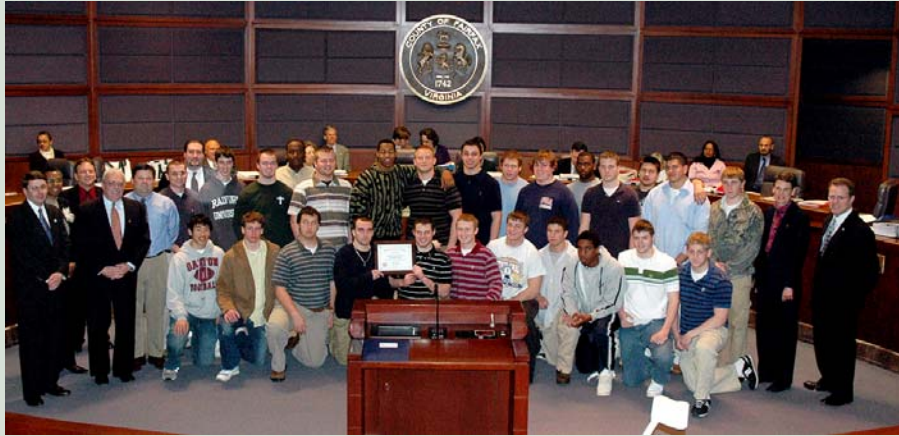

Fairfax County is looking for volunteers to participate in the 18th Annual Potomac River Watershed Cleanup scheduled for April 8, 2006, 9 a.m. to noon. Will you be one of the hundreds of Fairfax County residents volunteering to remove trash from streams and stream valleys throughout the county? Help protect our local streams and sources of drinking water by making this year one of the largest local stream cleanups in Fairfax County history. Find out more and sign up to volunteer by visiting www.fairfaxcounty.gov/dpwes/watersheds/springcleanup.htm or contacting Fairfax County at 703- 324-5500, TTY 711, or SWPDmail@fairfaxcounty.gov.
